

An ornate, black and white decorative frame surrounds the central text and crest. The frame features a large, arched top with intricate scrollwork and floral motifs. The sides are decorated with vertical panels of stylized foliage and scrollwork, topped with small, ornate finials. The bottom of the frame is a wide, symmetrical base of swirling acanthus leaves and scrolls.

Background/Bibliography of the Original Founder of the Meterion Society

The founder and original author was born under an Asian ethnicity in a province located in the southern part of the continent. Wherein said child was baptised under a Roman Catholic church. Living with an average family whose living during the current times is sufficed with whatever technology has been available with the same generation. Together with 3 other siblings, which all are considered male. The ancestral line of his mother was of Chinese origin, wherein said person also studied at a chinese school during elementary days. Details however with regards to both of his parents are somewhat limited and vague to a certain point. His mother was an average housewife during the early days then afterwards had a shop serving foods for the local area in which it was built.

Had a hobby with opening books satiating the curiosity which is inherent to people of young age. Possesses a kind approach to household pets wherein familiars or animals ranging from white mice up to guard dogs exists in the area of the house. Learned musical instrument at a young age, holding a lire and marching with a band of elementary musicians doing parades not directly issuing such or any command from whatever position he has. Afterwards, listening to alternative songs depicting theories on hybrid.

Junior to senior high school times become rough that the ability to enter a particular college or university and finishing at a rightful age was hindered. With the common culture which the country he has in, tried working in various industries which include companies located outside the country and Asia. Learning also the value of silver and gold outside the country made an impression that on an occasional basis, wealth does affect certain events.

First period of living and staying outside the country coincided with the great recession of the world which most are fairly aware of. On the latter years of his 30th age, normally stayed at his ancestor's house after leaving their original family home in a certain province which some has considered as an informal lodge. Reading, writing, and just normally watching whatever the internet has come to provide. With certain occasions of leaving and doing errands which may come out of random basis. Skills are normally intermediate and at often times adaptive due to the gift of being able to use knowledge and feat via certain connections.

Range of intellectual knowledge includes creativity to intermediate analytical thinking varying on constant occasions. Skin complexion is moderate to fair. Ectomorph to mesomorph around the age of 18+ to 20+ years of age. Bachelor's degree title intentionally hidden and put into private for confidentiality purposes. Has acquisition of beginner to intermediate wisdom and information on technology pertaining to computer and consoles during the particular era. Also endowed with knowledge in the branch of language including those used in esoteric and occult teachings. This file is intentionally written so that it may serve as a back up and future reference for those who might seek who the actual founder of the said guild was, and whose line of ancestry would be rightful enough to be the successive next Grandmaster or owner of the guild. High and optimal level of privacy together with confidentiality was aimed during the construction of this file wherein social media technology already exists in the internet. Though figuratively, it could be deciphered, certain details are done to protect the lineage of the guild founder.